

Serving My Neighbor

The Gospel According to Luke, Part 2

Week 3: Luke 10:25–37

Proposition

The parable of the Good Samaritan teaches us the connection between loving God and loving others. Each born-again believer has been sent to love others as Christ has loved them.

Key Words and Terms

esplagchnisthe: “felt compassion,” v. 33. This Greek word literally means, “was filled with pity or compassion.” In this context, “to have compassion” means to identify with a person’s situation to such a degree that action is taken for the other person’s benefit.

Historical Impact of Church on Culture

First Century

Greatest influence on culture: _____

Church’s place: _____

Church’s response: _____

313 AD–1950s

Greatest influence on culture: _____

Church’s place: _____

Church’s response: _____

Today

Greatest influence on culture: _____

Church’s place: _____

Church’s response: _____